Sherry's War - Part VI

Whoever controls America controls the world.

If there was ever an indisputable truism, self-evident on its very face, this is it. Those who control America spend much time trying to convince us otherwise; and they spend more time and money to convince us that America does not control the rest of the world. In order to secure and maintain total dominance, a world order, this "power elite" must convince all potential competitor groups it does not exist, or that it exists but lacks real power. Playing dumb and playing weak is their cover.

We are presently being treated to a totally contrived military threat from China, and we are told China is a global power. Again, nothing could be further from the truth. China is a global economic power because it has a lot of people who work and eat, but it is decades away, from being a modern military threat to anyone, except its immediate neighbors. China is only a convenient propoganda enemy for the power elite, a convenience to shift blame from themselves to it.

In the 1980s the Warmakers, as we've chosen to name our power elite, sold most of us on the bizarre theory that third world Arab states, including Libya, Iran and Iraq, were military threats to the U.S. The great American military machine actually went so far as to invade pathetic third world Somalia for a few ugly weeks. But the Gulf War's overnight annihilation of an entire army convinced most thinking people otherwise. In a few days the entire world watched as the U.S. military destroyed an entire population in a stroke of the Warmaker's sword. The myth of Arab military might correctly evaporated overnight.

To replace this imaginary Arab aggression threat, the Warmakers expanded the idea of imaginary world terrorism threat. This threat, too, is being largely dispelled by the lack of terrorist incidents. Indeed, if one excludes those incidents that have occurred in war zones such as Lebanon and Saudi Arabia, there have been more incidents of teenage school shootings in the recent years than by terrorists' acts against Americans.

So who then does control the world we live in? This is the question that has challenged secular minds, and which Christian minds have avoided. The politically correct answer is "nobody controls America." To say otherwise is to risk being accused of being possessed by an aberrations, deranged, "conspiratorial mind." No rational secularist wants to be accused of being a conspiratorialist any more than he would want to be caught believing in "creationism."

What do activist, evangelical Christians believe about the control of our country? Those who believe in a creation theory of mankind should logically also accept the cause and effect theory of history. Those who believe in a Darwin theory of mankind might be excused for believing that "stuff just happens" by accident and not by plan. The question remains, "Who is in control?" Most who believe in a creator God also believe in a cause and effect kind of history as portrayed in the Bible, events are the result of the willful and conscious actions of men both good and bad. It is only these cause and effect Christians who can make any sense out of history.

The 20th century has given us plenty of phony candidates for the world dictator. The middle years gave us the Nazi threat, followed by the Communist conspiracy. Both were militarists, both provided a cover for the international financiers who funded the wars. During these middle years our society was manipulated from the agonizing depression of the 30s, to endless brutal wars that followed. Now we are experiencing unprecedented inflation.

Before World War One, Americans were told a handful of internationalist organizations would control events through the Federal Reserve and the international bankers. Charles Lindbergh and other insightful men wrote that these would be the crafter and financier of endless war and a world order.

Frequently throughout the first half of the 20th Century many Christians alternately blamed the Catholic Church and the Masonic Lodge for manipulating America. Later it was the Council on Foreign Relations, The RIAA, and David Rockefeller's Tri-Lateral Commission. All were often blamed for the warring acts of the world's only surviving superpower, America.

In each case, except possibly the theory of Catholic Churches and the Masonic Lodge, the power structure being blamed for ruling America and thus the world, was younger than the present American government. Obviously, none of these new groups explain a drive for world dominance that has been going on for 2000 years, as Christians know from their Bibles.

Who then does control America, and what is the antidote to oligarchy? The answer is, Rabbinic Pharisaism, as it was know to Jesus and his apostles, controls America. It is sometimes improperly referred to today as "Judaism," but this is incorrect, for Rabbinic Pharisaism also includes the Judeo-Christian elements of the crumbling and compromising Christian churches, without which it would fail. And it is the revival of the Jesus Christian Church that is the only possible antidote and cure for this poison.

Pharisaism has always been at the top of the list as the control mechanism in the world oligarchy. In recent years the number of Jewish aristocrats who allowed themselves to be elevated to positions of ostentatious power has skyrocketed. Many, like Joseph Lieberman, now demanded public recognition of their religion with brazen disregard for those who have always whispered, "Don't you know the Jews are running things?" Rabbinical Judaism has simply dared Christians to notice that, for instance, the Clinton appointed Cabinet and the U.S. war making machine was predominantly Jewish. Dare we observe the obvious, that Joseph Lieberman says he is a devout Jew? If we do know the Pharisaic controlled media will shriek "Anti-Semites!" and the Judeo-Christian Celebrities will echo their cries.

The antidote for Rabbinism is as old as the problem itself. For Jesus in his own words is the solution. His followers continued to shout it. Rabbinic Pharisaism is plainly discussed in the books of John, Matthew, Luke and it continues throughout the teachings of Paul, Peter and the disciples without exception. The resistance and opposition to Rabbinic Pharisaism is and always has been the practice of Christianity. To put it another way, Rabbinic Pharisaism is anti-Christianity. If anyone doubts that Jesus Christ recognized it as the Adversary, read John,

Chapter 8, or Matthew 23.

One example is a dialog between Jesus and Jewish leaders makes up most of the 53 verses of John 8: John 8:39: They (Jews) answered and said unto him, "Our father is Abraham." Jesus said, "If ye were Abraham's children, ye would do the works of Abraham. But now ye seek to kill me, a man that hath told you the truth, which I heard from God: this did not Abraham. Ye do the works of your father." They said, "We were not born of fornication; we have one Father, [even] God." Jesus said, "If God were your Father, ye would love me: for I came forth and am come from God; for neither have I come of myself, but he sent me." Jesus continued (44) "Ye are of [your] father the devil, and the lusts of your father it is your will to do. He was a murderer from the beginning, and standeth not in the truth, because there is no truth in him. When he speaketh a lie, he speaketh of his own: for he is a liar, and the father thereof." Jesus said more, (Jn. 8: 47) "He that is of God heareth the words of God: for this cause ye hear [them] not, because ye are not of God." The Jews answered, "Say we not well that thou art a Samaritan, and hast a demon?" To this Jesus replied (51) "Verily, verily, I say unto you, if a man keep my word, he shall never see death." John 8:52, "The Jews said unto him, Now we know that thou hast a demon. Abraham died, and the prophets; and thou sayest, If a man keep my word, he shall never taste of death." To which Jesus replied, (8:55) "and ye have not known him: but I know him; and if I should say, I know him not, I shall be like unto you, a liar: but I know him, and keep his word."

Obviously, Jesus left a hostile climate for the Rabbinic Pharisaism, and He intended it so. In order to survive without assimilation, Rabbinism required an anti-Christian movement within Christianity to protect it from the condemnation in the Christian Bible. Pharisaism needed to muffle the stark reality of what Scripture says about it. It promoted (and possibly created) this muffler in the sect called Judeo-Christianity, or radical dispensationalism. This subset of anti-Christianity has been the subject of the first five parts of Sherry 's War. In this series we have sought to demonstrate the false teachings and heresy of Judeo-Christianity, using its own words.

Sherry's theology is typical of is millions of Judeo-Christians found in every church, often at the pulpit, in seminaries, on many Christian radio stations and in Christian publications. Judeo-Christianity did not evolve, it was invented, and if it was not invented in the synagogue of radical Pharisaic Rabbinism, it should have been. For dispensationalism serves Judaism, and not Christ, as Jesus and the disciples warns. Sherry's own words indicate she is more Rabbinic than Christian. She condemns Muslims, an unchristian idea. Her words betray an inexplicable, unchristian near hatred for the enemies of Israel: the Muslims. Her true real feelings show through her loving, Jesus words.

There is no logical reason for Christians to hate Muslims. The life style and voting habits of evangelical Christians and Muslims are far more alike than any other two religious groups we could pick. Both oppose abortion, drugs and alcohol abuse, homosexuality in school and public life. Both look down upon unfettered premarital sex and decry the loss of the family unit. Both pray. Sherry's habits and standards are probably closer to her Islamic neighbors that anyone in her neighborhood though she has never thought of this and would probably deny it. Yet Sherry antipathy toward Muslims is not because they have harmed her, but because she considers them the natural enemies of Israel. Consider Sherry's words of unapologetic condemnation of Muslims in her second letter.

Sherry tells us she considers her comments are for "Christian consumption only and it is not useful or productive to incite Muslims who do not have the understanding of Christianity and do not accept our Bible." It seems strangely unchristian to conclude that Muslims can not be reasoned with. She says, "Islam despises all forms of Christianity, not even allowing Bibles into their lands." This is an inflammatory generality that is simply not true. It is laced with contempt and obvious disrespect and inhumanity that seems out of character for a professing Christian. Sherry goes on to say, "Blasphemies circle the outside of the Dome of the Rock in Jerusalem." But what does she mean?

Sherry then turns her attention to ancient genealogy and condemns all Arab people as violent and mean: "He (Ishmael) will be a wild donkey of a man, his hand will be against everyone." She goes on to say, "Ishmael was an illegitimate child, a result of trying to fulfill God's plan by human means and will be against him." Sherry interprets these verses to mean the Arabs are foretold to be the aggressors against Israel a thousand years after Abraham, and therefore their children can not be protected. Sherry does not mind generalizing about Arabs, whom she refers to as Ishmaelites. She states "Ishmaelites live in hostility toward their brother a fulfillment of God's words to Hagar." (letters to Sherry will be forwarded)

We Hold These Truths has received many comments in this series, a few from persons who claim to be Judeo-Christian are crude and arrogant and boast of it. We usually do not print these, but in this case we will do so to make a point. Sherry's feeling toward the Arabs are as hateful as the worst we see, she is simply more polite and ladylike about it.

Take Jerry, who wrote (in part), "Long live

Judeo-Christian Civilization! The Dome of the Rock will be shattered like the shell of a stinking egg of Muslim rot!"

"All the dear Jewish people of Israel will be protected by the God of Christians and Jews as the Muslims and Palestinian play into their hands!"

"Our Western-Judeo-Christian civilization will go into extreme revival and prosperity, and all you envious Muslim dung-smellers will be covered with the shadow of our laughter, as you sneak about in your black burlap sheets!"

"The 3,000 year old folly and error of Ishmael, will be the frowns of your faces, all your allies around the third-world will dis-own you.(sic) Even (sic) the un-lovable face of your camels will laugh as they behold your down-cast resentful countenances!"

"LMAO: Jerry" (address withheld)

"P.S. The glory of Judeo(sic)-Christian Civilization will last forever! Palestinians(sic) will continue to be dung-beetles(sic) in the dry dusty desert(which reflects their blessing) and will greatly lament for the moist Jewish breast they used to sip off of, before the day they turned bitter against those gracious and fertile swelling breasts which seemed to adopt them even though they were the sons of un-promise! Long live our wise and blessed little sister Sherry, the sweet and fair one, with pink cheeks and golden ear-rings!" (Letters to Jerry will be forwarded)

We apologize to those who "Jerry" offends, but we must prove a point. There is no real difference between the essence of what Sherry says about Muslim and what Jerry, an admitted Muslim hater, says. Sherry, the Judeo-Christian, wraps her deep prejudice in words of transparent love; Jerry, the Talmudic Rabbinist, a self professing "Judeo-Christian" simply shrieks out his contempt and hatred for Muslims. And his words also contain a masked contempt for Sherry, who he praises faintly, for carrying out his agenda of Arab hate.

Rabbinical Judaism controls our media, and our entertainment. Unfortunately it also controls Sherry and probably Sherry's church, the pulpits of thousands of churches, the Celebrity Christians who have trained Sherry and millions who think like her.

Our Christian Cultural can be restored if God wants his people to prevail. But first it must be freed from Judeo-Christianity, only then can we recover our nation from the anti-Christian oligarchy that controls it, and threatens the entire world. If we do not do so, our children will someday suffer the fate of the sad and war sickened citizens of Palestine and Israel, and a dozen other war torn countries. Jesus conquered Pharisaic Rabbinism in his day... by way of the cross. We must protect ourselves and our children from it today as he taught us. But we can not expect God to honor what we do if we can not control and defend his holy place, the Christian Church. The Church is the Believer, and the Believer are His Church.

"One Nation Under Israel" may be the first historically documented expose of the hijacking of the American Congress. It is a popular lament that, "Congress is out of control," but nothing could be further from the truth. For as Author Andrew Hurley clearly explains, Congress is not under the control of its constituents but of a foreign power.
